james maxwell eelbeck

industrial ✧ brand ✧ innovation

e. james.eelbeck@uwe.ac.uk
t. +44 (0)7763 610 981

Profile

I am a dedicated enthusiast Product Design student studying at University of the West of England, with a strong drive and dedication to achieving the best results. I work well individually and as part of a team, with a passion to become the best I can, im always keen to develop and learn further.
I am currently seeking an internship/placement for 2009 - 2010 to gain experience and develop further before my third year.

Education

Undergraduate study

2007 - Current Product Design and Technology BSc (Hons)
University of the West of England, Bristol.
66% achieved in first year.

A - Levels

2003 - 2005 Design And Technology Resistant Materials, Photography and Geography
Backwell Sixth Form, Backwell, Bristol.

Design Experience

Design Case Studies in Nov/Dec 2008 asked by the engineering team for Bloodhound SSC land speed record car to design and manufacture, a full working test rig off the cockpit. For use with the driver Andy Green to accommodate the possible seating position within the car.

Peer Assisted Learning, currently employed by Uwe to assist a first year teaching class within the university, studying Product Design.

Tutored a Design Master class, at Rydings High School, For GCSE students in summer 2008.

Designed a fund raising t-shirt for RNLI Lifeboats at Cruze to the Prome 2007 VW Classic car show.

Skills

Very confident with: researching, branding, sketching, marker work, prototyping, model making, working with metals and woods, commutations with people, colleges and customers, organizational skills.

Highly proficient with software packages such as: CS3 suite, Solid Edge, Rhinoceros, Flamingo, Algor, MD Solids, Microsoft Office, Cambridge Engineering Selector.

Coroflot Porotfolio: www.coroflot.com/james_eelbeck

Employment

2004 - Current Caravan sales/Awning sales, full time for two years, now part time to uni fund course.
Mendip Caravan Centre, Hewish, Weston Super Mare.